

Tishk
International University

Faculty of Applied Science
Medical Analysis Department

Course Descriptions

This course is the continuation of DBT 101. The topics of this course train the students on using sources for academic communication, putting knowledge into good use, and raising academic questions and answering questions in an academic way. The course also aims to teach students how to accept and respect differing opinions, and how to conduct academic arguments.

DBT 102 / ACADEMIC DEBATE AND CRITICAL THINKING II